Dated: 22nd November, 2022

Respected Secretary,

As you are aware, a high priority has been accorded by the government to the rejuvenation of basic infrastructure and overall cleanliness of government schools. Such schools should not only be clean in physical appearance and upkeep but also be fully equipped in terms of basic infrastructure and facilities for the holistic teaching-learning process as envisioned in the National Education Policy-2020.

2. Your Ministry/Department oversees operations of many public schools. Therefore, it is kindly requested that necessary actions may be taken towards complete rejuvenation of all schools under your Ministry/Department, where it may be ensured that, at a minimum, the following amenities/facilities
